

REVISION WORK

The reading work is the most important to complete before lessons begin again. You will be given exercises to do requiring knowledge of all the theory part of the first semester in our first lesson. The two very short exercises will be an indication of how well you remember all the phonemes we have done so far. You will find the answers on a separate sheet.

1. Reread Ch 5 in 'English Phonetics and Phonology' and any parts of the other chapters about the consonants and the introduction to the pure vowels which you don't remember well.

2. COMPARING VOWELS EXERCISE (using the recording):

Circle the word which you hear from each group below:

- | | | | | |
|------|---------|---------|---------|---------|
| i) | A sang | B sing | C sung | |
| ii) | A hell | B hill | C hull | D heel |
| iii) | A sack | B suck | C sick | D seek |
| iv) | A chick | B chuck | C check | D cheek |
| v) | A rack | B ruck | C rick | D reek |
| vi) | A seat | B sat | C sit | |
| vii) | A fell | B feel | C fill | |
