Creating a personal account on Zotero

On www.zotero.org click on Log in, if you already have an account, or on Register, to create it.

You can use Zotero both in the online version and in the desktop version, which is more complete, but you have to install it in your pc. Click on download to install it, together with other useful tools.

Download Zotero Connector: you will need it to save the bibliographical references that you can catch from web pages.
