

Cooperative Learning Paper – final considerations

For the CL project, you should have compiled a portfolio with the following:

- Code of Cooperative Learning
- Framework for essay
- Classwork and/or group homework
- Resources you used to write your paper
- Your paper

The above should be uploaded by each group by June 5th and the final paper should be printed and turned into my office by 12 pm (or left in my mailbox in VSR by that time).

Your paper should contain:

- Cover page
- Contents page
- Essay
- Works Cited

The cover page should include the following information:

- Your names
- Your teacher's name
- The name of the course and academic year
- The title

Formatting

- Please ensure that your work is properly formatted
- All fonts and sizes should be consistent throughout
- Titles and chapter headings should be centred and in a larger size than the rest of the essay
- Subtitles should be flush with the left-hand margin
- Long quotations should be indented
- Spacing between paragraphs and below titles and subtitles should be consistent
- Check each page before printing. If a page only contains one line, alter the margins of the previous one to accommodate it
- If a page finishes with a title. Move it to the following page
- Pages should be numbered.
- Initials of all members of the group on the bottom of every page

Works Cited

Your works cited page should adhere to APA style. See the following link for further information. Any in-text citation in the paper should correspond to a reference in the Works Cited and vice versa.
